Publishing the Results of Scholarly Work in Medical Education
Steven L. Kanter, MD

Quiz

1. In one sentence, describe a current or recent medical education project or study on which you are working.

2. What is the purpose of your work?

3. What questions do you ask yourself to assess the quality of your work?

4. What ethical issues did you consider in developing and implementing your project or study?

5. What are important characteristics of a good abstract?

6. What are important characteristics of a good title?

7. When should you determine who is an author on the manuscript?

8. When should you decide in what order the names of authors will appear on the manuscript?

9. What is substantive editing?

10. What questions will a journal editor ask about your manuscript?