

MARGARET HAMILTON

ABOUT THE ARTIST

"PAINTING MY IMPRESSION OF OUR WORLD FREES MY SPIRIT, ADDS JOY TO MY LIFE, AND PEACE TO MY SOUL".

Margaret Hamilton began pursuing a career in art on her retirement from full employment in Publications at The Florida Bar where she still works part-time. She has a Masters in Historic Preservation. Her achievements in visual arts is in part the result of attending many workshops around the United States by professional artists. Margaret works both in oils and pastels but especially enjoys working in pastels with its vibrant colors, ease in application and softness in the appearance of final painting.

Margaret taught an art class at the Tallahassee Senior Center. Her work has appeared in invitational exhibits and juried art shows including Southern Rivers Art Exhibition in Camelia, GA, Thomasville Cultural Center Artists Guild, GA, Annette Turner Howell Center for the Arts, Valdosta, GA, Tallahassee Cultural Resource Commission, Artists League at FSU, Great Lakes Pastel Society in Birmingham, MI, and Gadsden County Artist Center in Quincy. A painting of hers appears on the cover of the February 2003 issue of The Florida Bar Journal. She is a member of the Advisory Council and the Art Council at the Tallahassee Senior Center. Margaret is the volunteer art curator for the Tallahassee Little Theater and also volunteers at Goodwood Plantation in the gardens.
