Special Feature – National Conference

Save the Date: SOPT Educational Program & Poster Session

2021 AAP National Conference & Exhibition Virtual Session
October 9, 2021 | 1-4pm CT

As part of the AAP National Conference, the SOPT virtual educational program is an opportunity for trainees to hear about Section activities, as well as opportunities to get more involved. Attendees will hear from the AAP President-Elect, a special keynote topic, as well as information on the upcoming advocacy campaign and the Anne E Dyson Award recipients. The session will conclude with a residency program panel for medical students.

SOPT Virtual Reception & Poster Display

October 9, 2021 | 4-5pm CT

The SOPT Virtual Reception and Poster Display will take place on Saturday, October 9th from 4:00pm – 5:00pm ET. The reception will be an opportunity for trainees to view the Section's winning clinical case abstract posters. Following the poster presentations, we will break into districts to meet AAP District leadership, as well as have an opportunity to informally network with one another. The reception is supported by Abbott Nutrition, a division of Abbott Laboratories, Inc.

Virtual registration is free for medical student members. Register here!

Visit aapexperience.org for more information about the conference.
